

Stephen returns to his old town and orchestra

THE return of violinist Stephen Bingham will boost the Banbury Symphony Orchestra when they start their new season at Deddington Church later this month.

Originally from Banbury, but now based in Norfolk, Mr Bingham plays in internationally renowned orchestras as well as leading his own quartet.

The first concert is on November 21 and Mr Bingham will lead the orchestra and perform the solo in Sheherazade by Rimsky-Korsakov. The last time he played this solo in Banbury was with the same orchestra back in 1981 when he was just 18 years old. The concert which starts at 8pm will also include works by Brahms and Dvorak and tickets at £5 for adults and £2 for children are available on the door or from Deddington Post Office.

