

Cellist Peter in village concert

THE Merry Wives of Windsor are coming to Deddington in musical form for the latest concert by the thriving Banbury Symphony Orchestra. Local musicians will play Nicolai's Merry Wives of Windsor Overture at Deddington Church on March 13.

Highlight of the evening will be a concerto for the instrument-of-the-moment, the cello, which is very much in the public eye due to the publicity surrounding the film about famous cellist Jacqueline du Pre.

Top cellist Peter Adams, who lives in Banbury, will also perform Dvorak's Cello Concerto. He is a founder member of the Rogeri piano trio, which numbers the Wigmore Hall and Purcell Room among its concert venues.

The concert also includes Tchaikovsky's resounding Symphony No 5 in E minor. Tickets are available from One Man Band and Ottakars in Banbury as well as The Post Office in Deddington.

They are priced at £5 for adults and £2 for children.

The concert begins at 8pm.
