

The string section of the Banbury Symphony Orchestra practice a section of the programme at rehearsals for the concert at St Mary's church, Banbury, this Saturday.

ST. MARY'S CONCERT OPENS MUSICAL SOCIETY'S 55TH SEASON

The Banbury and District Musical Society opens its 55th season on Saturday with a concert of classical music at St Mary's church, Banbury.

The programme comprises music by Schubert, Mozart and Beethoven played by the Banbury Symphony Orchestra with guest soloist Katherine Hill on flute and Susan Drake on harp.

Conducting the orchestra will be Philip Shaw, who will begin the programme with the Rosamunde Overture by Schubert followed by Mozart's Concerto for Flute and Harp K297.

Following the interval, the orchestra will present Beethoven's Symphony No 8 in F Major.